Making Play Happen...Making Play Matter

Play Session Activities

Messy Play

This includes exploratory, mastery and object play. This session would allow children to discover textures, explore the physical and affective ingredients of the environment around them.

Risky Play

This includes rough and tumble, locomotor and deep play. This session would allow children to discover strength, flexibility, encounter risky experiences and conquer fears, like climbing trees and obstacle courses.

Imaginative Play

This will include symbolic, creative and fantasy play. This session would allow children to use objects, actions or ideas to represent other objects and using their imagination. This can be a make-believe world for children, where the child's imagination gets to run wild.

Sporting & Games

This includes social and inclusive play. This session would allow children to be sociable and interactive with each other through play games and sports. The chosen games and sports can be discussed to best suit the local demographic.

Craft Session Activities

If outdoor play session may not be suitable for your local community, we also offer craft events. These can be indoor or outdoor and tailored to your community wants and needs. These have been highly successful at Kiln Farm and looking to take them elsewhere.
